

The Bottom Line: The Value of Business Archives for Research

Date:

Friday 27 Jan 2012

Venue:

James Callaghan

Lecture Theatre,

Swansea University

The day's events are free, but registration is required. Lunch and refreshments will be provided

A one day workshop bringing together expert speakers to explore the value of business archives for a surprising variety of research.

If you think business archives are too bulky, complicated or specialist then it's time to think again!

Over lunch there will be a chance for delegates to meet archivists showcasing the wealth of business collections held by local and university archives across Wales

For more details and a registration form please contact archives@swansea.ac.uk